History

Creator

- Ketsurui Zaibatsu

Pre-RP

Takaramono or Takara was manufactured in YE 23 as an NH-17 Nekovalkyrja for the Star Army of Yamatai. Shortly after completing training she was assigned to a ship as a starship operator. Once on board her training was specialized to make her a science officer. She enjoyed the challenges of being a science officer and the prospect of making first contact.

Over the years she met and worked with Saiki Kouan on numerous occasions. The two developed a professional friendship.

During several of their assignments, Saiki Kouan ran afoul of unsavory individuals looking to plunder the sites. Takara on these trips appointed herself his unofficial protector.

In YE 29 Takara decided she was going to leave the Star Army of Yamatai to work with her friend Saiki Kouan. Takara was concerned about her friend, who though he was a great scientist, had no real fighting experience. Takara decided that she needed to be with her friend so she could protect him. She heard about a new Nekovalkyrja body that was coming out and would be available for both military and civilians. She was prepared to transfer to a NH-29 until she learned that it was not going to be offered to civilians.

Takaramono held the rank of Nitô Juni at the time of her separation from the service.

So in the beginning of YE 30 Takara left the service and transferred to a Yamatain body, but opted to keep her Nekovalkyrja ears. She started working with Saiki Kouan. In the later part of the year when the SSS became a reality she joined it. Officially she is listed as Saiki Kouan's personal assistant. She is also his research partner and self appointed body guard.
