and pretentious.

When he turned 16 Siyun was set to graduated from his academy early, however, before he could graduate an accident claimed the life of both his parents. The shock of their deaths forced Siyun into a ten day seclusion. On day ten his youngest sister, Siaka, entered his bed room and asked him if they were going to be split up (among the other family members). Although he felt apathetic towards his sisters growing up the death of both parents emotionally traumatized Siyun and Saika's questions forced him from his self defecating rumination.

Two weeks after the death of his parents Siyun started to take on odd jobs to pay for the family's home and the continuing education of his two younger siblings. However the stress of the added responsibilities took its toll on his psyche and he had a mental meltdown. His sisters were taken by family members and his home sold to pay for a multitude of bills.
