Character Description

Tsigereda Berhane is a young Nepleslian woman currently living on Tatiana along with her parents, Berhane Ezana Aseri and Mihret Legesse. Formerly enrolled at a prestigious private academy for young women before jumping into numerous university courses, Tsigereda graduated with twin majors in Political Science of Macroeconomics; she currently works for her father's company as an analyst.

Physically, a good way to describe Tsigereda would be as “Striking”, not beautiful. She inherited all of the tallness of her parents but with none of the bulk, giving her a tall and strong appearance that mixes with toned, wiry muscles and a sharp, hawkish nose to make her earn that striking description.

History and Relationship Notes

Tsigereda is the youngest child of Berhane Ezana and Mihret Legesse, her father and mother respectively. She was born and raised for most of her early life on Nepleslia, in Ayhan and La Hanya, before her father took up the Chief Operating Officer role for Advancer and her mother began performing ministerial work on Dawn Station. As such she moved to the station herself, and was accepted into the prestigious NAMEHERE Academy for young women. She graduated in two years with high marks, then
