Physical Characteristics

- Height: 160 cm (5' 3")
- Mass: 45kg (99 lb)
- Measurements: 32C-28-32

Build and Skin Color: Yuril is of fairly typical build for a neko, she has fairly well-defined curves, with a slender build, and just a hint of muscles on her body. Her skin is fairly pale, but it still is quite pleasing to the eye.

Eyes and Facial Features: There is nothing particularly noteworthy about Tsukade's eyes, aside from their color. The right eye is a pale red, perhaps bordering just the line between pink and red, where as her left eye is a soothing blue, much like the surface of a clean lake.

Ears: In place of normal human ears, she has the trademark ears of a Neko, with just a tuft of silver-white hair to decorate them.

Hair Color and Style: Her hair is of a silverish-white color, like a cross between snow and a bar of silver. Yuril likes to keep her hair long, and as such she likes to have it reach down almost to her waist. Tsukade doesn't bother with anything fancy, and simply has her hair flow free.

Distinguishing Features: Yuril has managed to convince a tech or two to do some minor alterations to her genetics. Just enough to slightly discolor some skin to give the illusion of a 'scar'. She has a small little 'scar' running straight through her right eye, then a small little 'cut' on her left cheek. Yuril claims she thinks it looks kind of cute.

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Tsukade has changed a bit over the years, although at the core she is still the same kind young neko she always was. She enjoys meeting new people and making friends, and is always quick to offer a smile when talked too. However, she is a bit trusting and dislikes upsetting or saddening people, sometimes landing her in awkward situations.

While Yuril used to be a bit shy about her body, she's learned to appreciate it and has become a bit immodest, compared to her usual blushing at simply being seen in a swimsuit. Still, she is by no means an exhibitionist, but she is quite comfortable with her body. There is a bit of a perverse and mischievous streak in her, and she does sometimes have a bit of jealousy to particular... 'gifted' women. She does enjoy gambling as a fun way to pass time, and has been known to sometimes forgo betting money, and using clothing.

In combat, the neko is calm and collected - she doesn't make snap decisions but tends to take a few seconds to take in the situation, then reacting appropriately. While generally silent, she will occasionally crack a joke or snark to lighten the mood.

- Likes: Candy, strawberries, cooking, swords, gambling
- Dislikes: Cheaters, tofu, cherries, tomatoes
- Goals: Her main goal is not getting killed. She does have aspirations of one day commanding a ship, however

History

Family (or Creators)

Star Army of Yamatai

Pre-RP

Tsukade Yuril has a bit of experience under her belt, although most of it has been in relatively remote postings of minor importance - something of a disappointment to the young Neko.

While she did have quite an unusual experience in Fort Ready some four years ago, involving an unexpected Mishu attack and rescuing her instructor with the help of two friends - Mizuno Yoroko and Kai Nakamura. Afterwards Yuril enjoyed a brief posting aboard the YSS Miharuru.

However, it sort of all goes downhill from there - at least, from her point of view. Following rendez-vous with the YSS Pelican and a return to Yamatai, Yuril found herself transferred off the YSS Miharuru and stationed in relatively quiet, and unimportant postings - from her point of view. After all the Miharuru was on something of an important mission, and the neko was a bit distraught on not being able to see it through.

The calm, quiet postings at least gave her time to meet people and pick up new habits, such as the occasional gambling - after all, there wasn't particularly much else to do in a quiet posting but play some games and make friends.

With the Second Mishhuvurthyar War in the later half of YE 31, Tsukade regrettably found herself far from the thick of the fighting as she would've preferred, even if it likely is the reason why she has yet to be transferred into a clone body, all things considered. To her, being unable to contribute directly or noteworthy to the war was yet another downer for her, although she never let it sadden her and merely performed to the best of her ability regardless - even if it wasn't on the front lines, or directly engaging the Mishu in battle. She hopes it'll change soon.

Task Force Lantern

Following a brief assignment to the YSS Genesis, which was out on assignment, Yuril found herself reassigned to Task Force Lantern. During the time waiting for the Genesis, the neko happened to purchase a sort of "grab bag" that was delivered to the station she was at, while the salvage was mostly normal, of note was finding Helashio slaves amongst the cargo.

As the ownership of slaves is illegal, the neko opt to free them instead, and they have chosen in turn to stay with her.

Skills

Communication: Yuril is familiar with basic radio operation and procedures and can make transmissions to and receive transmissions from other characters through headsets, starships, power armor, and shuttles in both combat and non-combat conditions. Yuril is fluent in English, Japanese, and can speak telepathically. She can speak and write both correctly and efficiently and can write reports, fill forms, issue orders under fire, etc.

Fighting: Yuril received hand-to-hand combat training, followed up with a rigorous training program. She is skilled and experienced in combat both in Yamatai-like conditions and in zero-gravity, with and without weapons. Weapons she is trained in include energy pistols, grenades, energy rifles, knives, swords, and power armor.

Technology Operation: Yuril is capable of operating any computer system that uses the Kessaku OS, found on all Star Army starships. She is proficient in entering and/or searching for information.

Mathematics: Yuril received basic mathematics training, to including up to algebra and trigonometry.

Physical: Yuril is a very outdoor kind of girl and she likes to do lots of physical activities, such as swimming or acrobatics. She's no professional at either, but she's better than your average swimmer or acrobat. It also tends to influence her movements in her power armor, preferring to be more quick and graceful.

Culinary: Tsukade likes to believe she's a decent enough chef, having had a considerable amount of time to practice and learn that most people would not eat a cake with meat in the frosting. Her cooking is probably quite a bit above average, even if she prefers to make desserts over traditional meals.

Art and Vocations: With downtime and lax postings, comes a lot of time to draw and doodle. While she's no universe-reowned artist, her artwork is quite good - even if she is only good at drawing the female form, leaving her skill of drawing the male body to be quite a bit more behind. Or at least very feminine.
