Physical Characteristics

- Height: 5'2" / 157.5cm
- Mass: 98lbs / 44.45kg
- Measurements: 36B-30-35

Build and Skin Color: Tama has a light build with no real discernible muscle mass, and soft, almost creamy snow-white skin, free of blemishes.

Eyes and Facial Features: Her eyes are a frosty blue color. Her cheeks are dotted with little orange freckles, under which are of defined pale pink lips that are set in a neutral expression.

Ears: She has slightly longer than normal ears which are covered almost entirely by a icy pale blue fur, the tips of them have lynx-like darker blue tufts.

Hair Color and Style: Her hair is the same icy pale blue color as the fur that is on her ears, but long, and kept in place with many hair pins and barrettes of differing color and shape, and barely passing muster.

Distinguishing Features: Can be lazy with her appearance, not to the point of breaking regulations, but she does not take extra time if she can help it.

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Tama has a rather frosty exterior, usually taking her time to respond to those who address her in an informal setting. Her responses are not driven by rage at some past trauma, or a need to be in control, but rather a preference for taking her time to analyze the data and move at her own pace. She can be lazy about her physical appearance if she thinks she can get away with it, finding it to be more of a waste of time and energy, when she could be working on what she views as more important matters. While her exterior can be cold and vary lacking in any emotional cues, most of the time her inner thoughts and emotional processes actually move and react as quickly as her thoughts can process them, allowing her to focus on what is really important. She can be a perfectionist when it comes to her work, and expects other to take the same time and diligence she does.
