

Yamazaki Eve (山崎)

Eve was a young, experimental program Human who served in the Star Army of Yamatai. She was a veteran of the 4th War fleet, the battle of Tami and other enagagements, and died in battle on the galactic frontier. After tweaking her genetic design again, her mother Yamazaki Alaena took the recovered ST backup on Yamatai and changed her again. Given a tough choice between the only officer who would allow her to serve and the home with her.

Eve in Roleplay

She's a character with a lot of conflict, and could almost be called an NH-28 with slightly more personality.

Current Events

- Part of the survey team sent to Nyli.

Physical Description

Eve is a particularly tall girl for her age, which at least seems to be what she claims it is. Her body has athletic tone, and white skin that is very prone to tanning in the right conditions. Most easily noticed are her eyes, the right blue, and the left green. They are very deep and often set her out from others as much as anything. Yamazaki's hair falls two hands below her shoulders. It is primarily violet, with a jagged blue streak near her bangs. No one used to be sure what colour her hair actually is. Lately they are more sedate, as she tries to avoid any more attention for standing out. Her ears are now a standard Nekovalkryja variety, but oddly, very oddly she has a violet tail that she often will curl around her waist to try to hide.

Personality

A precocious girl in some ways, Eve tries her best to not let her occasional naive outbursts get the best of her. She is especially sensitive about the different colors of her eyes, consequently she doesn't enjoy being the subject of jokes she finds cruel (not mentioning her height difference from girls her age). She has a natural curiosity, and is enthused at the opportunity to learn. Very concerned with what people think of her, she keeps mostly to herself, save the occasional coy remark. Eve is very self conscious, reflected by her personal habits. Always someone who is worried with impressing her superiors, taking reprimands normally far too personally.

Having said that, she lacks many social skills from the way she was raised.

Likes and Dislikes

Likes

Changing her hair color, combat simulations, swimming, martial arts, music, exploring, and her bunny.

Dislikes

Failure, being teased, survival rations, being profiled by her age, tasteless vegetables, being too hot in a humid place, and automated star ships.

Goals

To prove she isn't too young to be in the Star Army, work as an officer like she was supposed to, learn about families, get a hobby.

Biography

History

Born in YE 14. Raised by various Starship R&D, testing, and military stations until YE 20. Both her mother and father were often busy with their research, her mother Alaena Yamazaki for the Ketsurui PNUgen R&D division, and father for the KFY, Kalathaes Yamazaki. There often wasn't time to give her attention, and she constantly had to find ways to keep herself busy.

Signed into a pilot program by her parents by her consent, entered into intensive training for early service to the Star Army. When she graduated, she specialized in Piloting and Command. This is not a complete representation of her life, but the program was later put on hold as war with the SMX began. However, the confidence in her skill was put against lack of battlefield experience, and she was sent out to battle from the bottom up.

Assigned to the YSS-Mikomi, she fought and earned her ranks before dying in action with most of her crew, and the last memories of the 4th War Fleet. Two backups remain of the girl, and the one misfiled on Yamatai was recently restored.

Meeting Yuriko Towa by chance while out buying chocolate milk, she ended up being drafted to fly the test ship for the eccentric but effective commander, the only one whom recruited her. It had been let down after let down with each Captain she had begged before then. Based on her record, she was promoted to Midshipmen to better serve her role on board as Yuriko saw fit.

Skills

Fighting and Physical

Eve received hand-to-hand combat training via rigorous training. She is skilled and experienced in combat both in Yamatai-like conditions and in zero-gravity, with and without weapons. Weapons she is trained in include energy pistols, knives, and power armor. She is also known to devote her free time to honing these skills, and is described as something of an artist in her power armour. After real engagements with hostiles (notably Mishhu) her style reveals itself as more of a harried, ragged dance that plays on multiple aspects to confuse and destroy the enemy.

Communications

Eve is familiar with basic radio operation and procedures and can make transmissions to and receive transmissions from other characters through headsets, starships, power armor, and shuttles in both combat and non-combat conditions. speak and write both correctly and efficiently and can write reports, fill forms, issue orders under fire, etc.

Technology Operation

Eve is capable of operating any computer system that uses the Kessaku OS, found on all Star Army starships. She is proficient in entering and searching for information.

Knowledge

Completely indoctrinated to the Yamatai Empire. The training course was an apt jumping point for her sharp memory, and this kept another portion of her free-time divided between the information center and the training areas.

Leadership

Given the basis to speak in public, analyze and apply intelligence, command units in real training or simulation, and exploit the theatre of battle are things Eve struggled with the majority of her training years, given her personality. She applied her talents on the Mikomi, and quickly found it fruitful. In wartime she learned a great deal about herself, leading, and following those around her.

Mathematics

Eve received basic and intermediate mathematics training, to including up to algebra and trigonometry, with enough extra study in pertinent resources in calculus and important situations for fleet officers and soldiers alike to help round out her training.

Starship Operation

Eve has completed basic and advanced courses and training needed to operate almost any type of starship, however her real experience came from combat and training both before and after her assignment to the war fleets. Sneaking as much experience with starship systems and generally getting into things was her hobby, much to the vexation of her parents in the first half of childhood.
