History

Ylva Ōkami was born in YE 38.

Family (or Creators)

Created by the Ketsurui Zaibatsu

Pre-RP

Ylva Ōkami was created in a Ketsurui Zaibatsu facility, and then immediately moved to the Ikoi-Class Light Starbase YSS Seisenkyo where the remainder of her training and socialization was completed in anticipation for the Heartbreaker's need for a medic. While she upset many of her instructors with her attitude, none could complain about her work ethic or aptitude.

One particular instructor, Dr. Kelley DeForest, took a special interest in Ylva and encouraged her to study beyond the required material for a Star Army Medic. She consumed the knowledge voraciously. She learned anything and everything he taught her.

Medical (First Aid)

After basic training, Ylva got trained and certified to become an enlisted medic. She is trained to perform field surgery, able to patch up a injury or help to diagnose and transport a injured combatant to where they can receive more trained care.

Science (Xeno-Anatomy and Physiology)

Under the tutelage of Dr. Kelley DeForest, Ylva learned the process behind adapting medicine for unknown species. She also knows how to perform various medical scans and evaluations for species that haven't yet been added to databases.

Culinary

Dr. DeForest told her once in passing: "Being a good surgeon is like being a good chef, you need to know how to take ingredients and put them together in ways that make people happy." He merely meant it as a metaphor but Ylva took it to heart and studied the culinary arts as hard as her medical training.
