Pre-RP

Zeldan was brought up in a home of soldiers. His parents had been very hard on him and his two siblings. Being the middle child he didn't really receive any positive attention when attention was given. His parents trained all of the children in hopes that they would eventually join the Star Army of Yamatai. While Zeldan and his two siblings were in school their parents were drafted. News came back that their father was killed in action and mother was missing in action. Zeldan had enlisted into the Star Army in YE 29 and went through training until YE 31. He was finally to start on the path which his whole family had failed. It was his goal to become a Planetary Infantry and rise through the ranks and prove he was better than those who had fallen in his family.
