

Equilibrium Foods

Welcome to Equilibrium Foods, a division of the Equilibrium Corporation. We care so much about your welfare that we traveled across universal barriers to provide you with much needed food and water. We are committed to the continued growth of those we serve. Therefore, distribute 25% of all food produced to needy communities within our reach.

For personal, face to face interaction, our storefront is conveniently located on the planet Akina, in the Bard Cluster. Just look for the big farms, visible from orbit. There you can not only meet our staff, but see exactly where your food comes from. At Equilibrium, we have nothing to hide, because our products are 100% natural.

Thanks to climate control technology, all our foods are available, fresh from the soil, at any time. For orders being shipped, most foods will have to be preserved, either by canning, drying or freezing.
