

Mecha Employed Muscular Enhancement

Mecha Employed Muscular Enhancement or MEME is a creation of Psychopomp LLC that creates a bond between operator and mecha in order to better facilitate mecha operation. Alex Patton has received these enhancements through a shadow project carried out by Psychopomp LLC.

About MEME

After undergoing an operation to install the muscular enhancements, the operator will be able to command the mecha with his movements and actions in a way not done before. The muscular movement of the operator is sent to the mecha through these enhancements, forming a strong bond between man and machine.

Body Placement

MEME is usually placed in the following areas:

- Deltoid of the shoulder
- Anconeus of the elbow
- Patellar tendon of the knee
- Corpora cavernosa

Systems

MEME works with several of the bodies systems, such as:

- Muscular
- Ventricular
- Central nervous
- Respiratory
