

Abwehran Executive

The executive branch of the Abwehran Star Empire is comprised to two co-dependent forces: the Imperial Family and the Imperial Cabinet.

Imperial Family

The Imperial Family is the main force of the Imperial Government with the Empress holding Presidential Powers in the Empire and the Emperor holding the powers of a Commander-in-Chief of the Abwehran Armed Forces \(AAF\). The only other civilians to hold power in these matters is the Imperial Cabinet.

As the one who holds Presidential Powers, the Empress is able to sign bills into law as well as veto any bill she deems unfit to pass. The Emperor has the power to command the Abwehran Armed Forces and make them move against forces that pose an imminent threat. However, both the Imperial Parliament and the Imperial High Court act as a balance between the power of the Empress and her Emperor.

Imperial Cabinet

Acting both as advisers and as departmental managers, the Imperial Cabinet has no true power behind them and are normally appointed by the Parliament and approved by the Empress. A Minister must be appointed and approved each time the majority of Parliament has shifted in order to facilitate change and cooperation. The Empress has the right to deny appointees for any reason, but this often doesn't happen due to the need for collaboration between the branches.

Minister of State	Gerhard Stoffleth	She is responsible for foreign/domestic policies and Imperial ceremonies. This position holds a high amount of political significance in the Imperial Government.
Minister of the Military	abwehran_military	The Civilian Head of the Military after the Emperor. He is responsible for political/financial decisions in the Abwehran Armed Forces and often holds more political than military experience.
Minister of Finance	abwehran_finance	The chief of the Imperial Treasury, she is responsible for advising the Empress on the Imperial Budget.
Minister of the Interior	abwehran_interior	He is responsible for the management and protection of the natural resources and historical sites of the Empire.
Minister of Agriculture	abwehran_agriculture	She is responsiblle for subsidizing Abwehran farmers and the managment of Imperial food/drug regulations.

Minister of Nobility	abwehran_nobility	Due to the House of Lords being comprised of hereditary land-owners that keep their positions until passing it to their kin (or death), the Imperial Government decided a ministry based upon keeping tabs on them was necessary. The Minister of Nobility is the chief of this internal affairs organization.
