

Weâm Vymaor'a Buvo'te (Traveler Sitting Place)

The Weâm Vymaor'a Buvo'te or traveler stting place serve as hubs at larger Sky Harbors. Weâm Vymaor Vymaor'a Buvo'te is pronounced wěâm vīmă-ōr-ă būvō-tě.

They are above the Mâhoa Kâuri \(Concourses\) that connects it to the entrance and control section of the Sky Harbor. This also gives the travelers a great view of the berths around them and the surrounding area.

They are large open spaces with seating for travelers who are waiting to board. There can be up to eight normal concourses to take the travelers to their vessel.

They have a Qylitei \(Niceties\) for the comfort and convenience of those present. There are also Abukai (Baths) where the travelers can take care of basic bodily needs. There is a kiosk in the center which has a Sâgely \(Customs\) station, a Ifânume Mâhoa \(Harbor Security\) as well station to take care of travelers. There are smaller kiosks that provide access to communication systems.
