Details

The Akko Rotyusapo has two receptacles for inserting a stabilizing hand grip on each side, to accommodate the user. The Akko Rotyusapo can be operated without the side grip, but accuracy is better using one. The status indicator is located toward the rear of the weapon which gives the user a clear indication of the weapon status.

Weapon Status
Blue	Ready	Magazine 30 to 16 rounds
Yellow	Ready	Magazine 15 to 7
Orange	Ready	Magazine 6 to 1
Red	Not Ready	Magazine 0

The trigger is built into the rear hand grip, and the 30 round magazine inserts in front of the hand grip.

Magazine

In addition to holding thirty thirty rounds, the magazine also houses a rechargeable power cell that powers the weapon. It also contains a small cylinder of inert gas that is used to help keep the gun coils from getting too warm.
