

LSDF Officer's Lockers

Located near officer quarters, and launch bays, the officer's lockers serve as a storage location for spare duty uniforms, personal attire, personal belongings, and other items which the officer desires to be kept safe while stored outside of their quarters. Officer locker rooms are decorated according to the commander's preferences, and include lockers which are enhanced with Nerimium, and include a range of Lorath locking mechanisms comparable to those used in Lorath armories such as neural locks, DNA scanners, biometric scanners, Pico-Jelly keys, and pass-codes.
