

Subspace-Encased Positron Tunneling Cannons

Designed to cut through any shielding and matter in a short amount of time. The medium cannon also penetrates distortion and repulsion shielding, ignores scalar and "hard" shields, and burrows through Zesuaium and Yamataium rather easily, while electrically draining the target ship at the same time.

Typically found on Sfrarabla Mishhuvurthyar Xhrafuklurp \(SMX\) ships and sometimes, starships of the Star Army of Yamatai.

- Primary Purpose: Anti-starship
- Secondary Purpose: Assault
- Damage: DR 4 (Anti-Starship). Shield piercing.
- Range: 1 AU
- Rate of Fire: Once per second.
- Payload: Effectively unlimited.
