

Dovanian Military Ranks

The following are the ranks of The Monarchy of Dovania's military. They're set up in their respective branches and segments. For the Army and Navy, four segments (Soldiers/Sailors, Officers/Warrant Officers, Commanders/Naval Commanders, and Generals/Admirals) are used; for the special branch that is the Dovanian Royal Guard, however, different ranks - which also differ in authority - from the Army and Navy are used.

With each rank brings a high position of not only experience, but also talent, performance, skill, authority, and - most of all - respect. The higher the rank, the better one is. Each Dovanian must prove themselves to be promoted and with a promotion comes not only a pay raise but also more responsibilities and tasks to complete to maintain their ranking - not only to prove themselves out in the field but also on offline tasks as well. Efficiency is everything in Dovania and there is no room for laziness - that is, at least while one is on the job.

Members of the Dovanian military are paid in Dovanian Tekk, which is abbreviated below as DT.

Generals

Generals are the heads of the Army. They orchestrate the main missions and order troops into battle and are usually in the back of the battlefield; despite this, however, they are welcome to join up at the front.
