

Star Military Intelligence Pacification Group Naval Detachment

Overview

The IPG's Naval Detachment is, contrary to its name, actually a small fleet of warships under the dedicated command of the Intelligence and Pacification Group. It is used for various combat missions, as well as for ferrying various personnel throughout Nepleslian space. Vessels in use by the IPG eschew the standard dark green paint used on most Nepleslian warships in favor of a dark grey or black. In addition to its own dedicated vessels, the IPGND also has full access to any ship within the SMDION's storage facility.

The Naval Detachment is based at System P1-10 "Dejection".

Structure

Following the YE 35 restructuring, the IPGND underwent a similar restructuring. It is currently divided into a four divisions, each containing a number of warships. When ordered to deploy, each division can be further divided into squadrons, each numbering between 5-10 ships.
