

Ensign

Ensigns are the lowest ranking of members on a bridge crew. They are often fresh from training at a Naval Corps Bridge School. On most ships the Ensign is given a watching position while other Warrant and Joint personnel operate at the bridge. When a Captain thinks that an Ensign has done enough watching, he assigns him a position in where he'll work closely with the person who usually operates it, along with a promotion to Lieutenant \(NSN\) afterward, depending on their performance. Ensigns are usually paid 300 DA a week, and often given their promotion after their first space battle.

Note: Ensign is mainly a Naval Corps rank, members of the Care and Public Relations Corps usually skip this rank straight to Lieutenant \(NSN\).
