Upper Body

Grand Admiral's Jacket

The Grand Admiral's uniform jacket is a double-breasted style jacket with five buttons trailing down the center. The woven deep green fabric covers most of the uniform, save for a strip of weathered brown leather that reached from the shoulder down the length of the sleeve to the cuff. The jacket has a wide white collar and a low-cut neckline, and is usually worn over either the standard Nepleslian pull-over or a green turtleneck, although Grand Admirals are given the choice to any appropriate undershirt.

The most defining feature of the uniform jacket are the shoulders, which are covered in a swatch of thick brown fur.
