

Neshaten Ammunition

The following is a list of ballistic ammunition used by the Neshaten, it should be noted that Ballistic Ammo is a rarity for the Neshaten given their hard-usage of energy weapons and swords, usually only weapons of a long range nature like sniper rifles or sniper cannons use ballistic ammo, but that doesn't mean other weapons won't appear that use the same ammo.

The Neshaten are always experimenting to find new types of ammunition to use in the few ballistic based weaponry they have, mainly because while they favor the energy based weapons they understand that sometimes something bigger and more powerful is needed to get the job done.
