

Neshaten Officer Cabins

The Kingdom of Neshaten officer cabins are places where a ship or stations officers go when they are done for the day. The cabin is designed to give the officer a relaxing feeling, and can actually be furnished to the officer's desire depending on rank. High ranking officers can have their cabins customized to their liking, while low ranking officers can't.

The room is split into three sections, with the first section being the bedroom, the second being the living room, and the third being the bathroom.

Bed Room

The bedroom includes a single king-sized bed that sits on a carpeted floor, a walk in closet, and an officer's station so that the assigned officer can monitor the area of the ship that they are assigned to.

Living Room

The living room has a sofa, carpet, Standard or Holographic TV, along with a table for placing items on. There is a control station that lets the occupant control the temperature of the room and also its lighting.

Bathroom

The bathroom has a toilet, shower, and sink along with a mirror. The floor, walls, and ceiling are tiled.

The Officer Cabin is one of the few military components that can also be found on civilian vessels.
