

Neshaten Trainer Bow

The Trainer bow is a weapon used by Neshaten citizens and soldiers who are new to firing a bow. The bow is made out of a lightweight material, and reinforced frame so that if a person makes a mistake the bow doesn't break on them.

Unlike the military and Guardian Bows, it lacks the sophisticated electronics or the reinforced firing chamber.

The bow is only capable of firing trainer enery bolts, and not bolts used by the military or guardian style bows. This function can be overridden, but the bow itself wasn't designed to fire those types bolts and thus the firing mechnism would suffer some damage if done.

Differences

The trainer bow has a different color marking than those used by the military, the bow is a white color, with the ends being red, there is the word 'trainer' written on the sides both the top and bottom.
