History and Background

In YE 44, following the resignation of Imperial Premier Ketsurui-Motoyoshi Katsuko and her dispute with Senator Iemochi Seinosuke, a promise was made to provide a platform for Pro-Imperial politicians to have a platform for their voice within the Yamatai Star Empire. The Bellflower Party was then created by Motoyoshi-Ieyasu Tetsuya, the Governor of Jiyuu III and the Leader of the Imperialist Regional Government of the Motoyoshi Colonial Sector to fulfill that promise. Offices were then setup in Kyoto and Tokyo.

YE 44 Establishment Of The Bellflower Party

- YE 44.7 - Yamatai Interstellar News Network (YINN) covered the announcement of the Bellflower Party's founding and the endorsement of their candidate Kinoshita Fusako for Imperial Premier.<sup>1)</sup>

Platform

The platform of the Bellflower Party is as follows:

- Pro-Imperialist, Support of Empress Himiko I.
- NekoValkyrja, and other Star Army of Yamatai veterans issues and views.
- Continued expansion of Government Organizations.
- Expansion of the Yamatai Star Empire.
- Preservation of Yamataian Culture and traditions.
- Rebuilding of the Yamatai Star Empire following the Kuvexian War.
- Having Yamataian citizens represented where all citizens are covered under the rights already granted under The Constitution of Yamatai Star Empire.

Note on Member Politics

As with any political party, members may agree, partially agree, or disagree with some of the generalizations of the party but for the most part, they generally support those like-minded politicians. Voting outside party lines is totally acceptable and expected in the political arena.

Funding

Funding comes from both the Motoyoshi Clan and Ketsurui Clan, however yearly galas and fundraising events are held to bring in donations from party supporters, and other sources.

Associated Lobbyist Groups

Lobbyist organizations to this party:
