

BioNutri-Snack

A healthy mind is a productive, fertile and delicious mind! -Cassefin Montreal

Overview

The BioNutri-Snack product line of healthy snack foods was conceived by Cassefin Montreal, during her time on the Nepleslian Arms and Munitions "Cirrus" Class Research Station. Being a huge health food fanatic, Cassefin created this franchise to share (or rather, enforce with an iron fist...she has restricted all contraband foods from the station) her passion of clean, beneficial eating to the personnel aboard the Nepleslian Arms and Munitions "Cirrus" Class Research Station.

BioNutri-Snacks are made on Nepleslian Arms and Munitions "Cirrus" Class Research Station with the resources grown in the Bio-Organic Research and Containment Facility, and are the meal mainstay of the station. Cassefin has not yet been able to find a proper location to place her self-proclaimed "New Age of Nepleslian Foods" planetside.

The machine itself is about the size of a regular snack machine: most of the front is covered in glass, exposing the goods inside to tantalize passing personnel. On the sides and bottom area of the front of the machine are full-body images of Cassefin Montreal herself, in her Nepleslian Arms and Munitions "Cirrus" Class Research Station lab uniform, holding a Legume Bar and throwing the passer-by's a two-fingered V-sign, enticing wink and canary-eating grin.

Please eat responsibly.
