

Chef's Dream Knife

After losing all of her knives and other cooking equipment during the Battle of Amaya's Gate, and the subsequent fighting with Melisson, Kyou went out of her way to buy a new knife that she could justify carrying with her at all times, even if it was primarily going to be used for cooking so far as she was concerned. She had it customized especially for her, to be extra sure it was what she needed. The result was a lightweight Durandium blade, with a custom tooled leatherbound grip, with a small Nerimium weight in the pommel to balance the knife better. its molecular knit for the blade lends itself well to the special monomolecular edge, making the knife both extremely sharp, and extremely hard to break. She paid a bit extra to have the durandium blade tinted with dark blue (though done lightly, so as to not make it harder to use cleanly), and the pommel of the blade itself has been engraved with the Miharu's emblem, in memory of the first ship she served on, only to see destroyed.
