Name

The name of the bar comes from the statue just inside the bar. Griff wanted a Rampant (Rearing up) Horse for the bar, and was going to name it that. However, the statue he received was not what he had seen online. Instead of looking fierce and dangerous, the statue had a wide eye, silly expression. While showing it to the staff one of the girls said it looked like her boyfriend the first time she said she would sleep with him. Once everyone finally stopped laughing, Griff decided to keep the statue and the name became Ecstatic Pony.
