

Luna Bianca

Luna Bianca is one of two moons of Yamatai \(Planet\). It is visible in Yamatai's sky<sup>1)</sup>.

Luna Bianca is also home to YSS Tsuiken, the first Kisaki-class Starbase<sup>2)</sup>.

History

In YE 29, Luna Bianca was considered a possible construction site for the Hummingbird-class Colony Ship<sup>3)</sup>.

In YE 33, the Star Army of Yamatai hid a secret fleet, the Central Defense Fleet, behind Luna Bianca in the Battle of Yamatai<sup>4)5)</sup>.

In YE 34, Luna Bianca shipyards worked on the repairs and refit of Hotaru Star Fortress<sup>6)7)</sup>. The repairs were completed early<sup>8)</sup>.

There was an incident where the Empress of Yamatai, Empress Himiko I, was attacked at a Christening ceremony<sup>9)</sup>.

In YE 43, the YSS Tokyo was repaired at Luna Bianca after the Battle Of Glimmergold<sup>10)</sup>.

Description

Luna Bianca is an airless rocky planetoid covered in brilliant white moon dust and craters. Its habitable spaces consist of surface and subsurface colony facilities connected by underground rail tunnels<sup>11)</sup>. It has reduced gravity compared to planet Yamatai<sup>12)</sup>.

Luna Bianca is home to Ketsurui Fleet Yards's Luna Bianca Lunar Shipyards, which helped manufacture ships like the Takumi-Class Expeditionary Command Cruiser<sup>13)</sup> and to Miharu Light Industries, which manufactured the experimental Himiko-class Light Escort and YSS Byakuren.

Saito Space Port, which has a rail station, is located in Ketsurui Saito crater<sup>14)</sup>. Saito spaceport is also home to The Miles High Hotel<sup>15)</sup>.

The moon's primary spaceport was situated on the outer edge of the Ketsurui Saito crater, with viewports revealing a fantastic view of the crater's full expanse were arms branched out from the main terminal, extending into maintenance platforms and docking stations as far as the eye could see within the depression, with Yamatai's white-and-blue orb above.

The railstation was the opposite way, toward the 'walls' of the crater. From the station, the rail cars entered a web of tunnels going from the Saito crater to the many other facilities nestled into other craters. The KZ main development shipyards where MLI had three bays were at Yuki station, nestled within the nearly as large Ketsurui Yuuki crater.<sup>16)</sup> Concourse 48 is where MLI's three shipyard bays (labeled F, G, and H) are located. This was where the YSS Asamoya was launched. There is a food court on Level 1<sup>17)</sup>.

Another location mentioned was Concourse 71, Hangar C<sup>18)</sup>.

Transportation

Luna Bianca is typical reached by shuttle from Starships or planet Yamatai.

People

Luna Bianca is primarily inhabited by workers of Ketsurui Fleet Yards and the Star Army of Yamatai.
