

First Steps

STAR ARMY TRAINING ADMINISTRATION

First Steps is a Yamatai roleplaying plot based at Fort Hikari (all IC training/location info in the link) to be run by GM ethereal that surrounds the training and off-duty life of a new batch of new recruits. Here they learn how to be leaders and hold the respect of their troops, battle tactics and logistics. The experiences and knowledge they possess from the past will surely come in useful to complete the tasks put to them and also to help their platoon to pass the class.

Status: First Steps is accepting new players at this time.

Plot Overview

First Steps is a training plot based at the Fort Hikari, revolving around the current class of recruits from all walks of life. Some may be fresh Nekos straight out of the factories, new reservists or other races just coming of age to join.

The IC aim of this plot is to equip the candidates with everything they need to be effective soldiers in the Star Army.

The OOC purpose is to allow players to gain actual military knowledge, to better RP their characters in other plots - especially those in leadership roles. Any potential GMs can use this plot to develop a crew for their vessel until such a time they kick off their plot rather than fabricating their background!

This plot is aimed at new players with characters that may be their first.
