Plot Overview

SINs of Anisa is a plot centered around Operation Bakuwana, a series of actions taken by Star Army Intelligence (otherwise known as SAINT) to combat the Interstellar Kingdom Of Kuvexia and their covert actions to hinder the "breadbasket" world of Anisa System. Comprised of a collection of SIN (Strategic Initiatives Network) agents commanded by Chusa Shibui Mame, the plot focuses on both Yamataian daily life and what is essentially all forms of Espionage. As its name suggests, the plot's secondary goal is to flesh out and detail the system of Anisa, both within its cultural heritage and the colorful folks around the planet.

It is also one of the first plots intended to focus on the primary conflict of Yamatai in YE 40, the Kuvexian War, despite being focused in Yamataian space rather than abroad.

The plot's initial theme was modified to focus on expanding the Yamataian idol culture as a secondary objective through the use of making mini-neko idols as the cover for the team and operation.

Posting Rules and Pacing Explained

Format

Mix between standard posts and JP. Everyone will generally require a JP to enter the RP's setting. SP and JP (Primarily SP)

Pacing

Posting in standard threads should be kept orderly and done every 5-7 days if not sooner. Generally, this can be excused or overlooked in most cases, but the player may be NPC'd to progress the plot in the case of holding the thread up at the time. Players will receive three warnings before they will be removed from the current arc, requiring them to engage in JPs until the duration of the thread is over.

History

Below is the collective history, as well as a thread list, of the plot since its original debut to the site.

Thread List

- Start: Operation Bakuwana
- Recruitment: One Fish \(Hasewega\)

Pre-Launch of the Plot

Sometime in YE 39, Shibui Mame was dispatched as one SIN agent among a collection of the RISE division to conduct investigation into the national security of Anisa. This was done in response to the belief that Kuvexian agents had begun to insert themselves into the Kikyo sector and spread to seek out targets. In particular, Shibui and her team were intended to determine the current-standing strength and stability of Anisa if it were to come under enemy sabotage. In the late months of YE 39, this finally provided ample room to believe the Kuvexians had begun initial steps to infiltrate Anisa. SIN was contacted to provide agents, which consisted largely of transfers and specialists of nearby worlds and abroad to produce a diverse team. Starting with the recruitment of Separa'Shan Dion'Sirith, the SIN team was called in and ordered to prepare as the turn of YE 40 came.

Only within a few days of the SIN team's arrival did SAINT finally put into effect Operation Bakuwana, where Anisa would be the first step to fight the “ghosts” of their enemy with spirits of their own. In particular, Mame was able to track down one agent and received confirmation from command days later, signalling the start of the operation.
