

Standard Star Army Armory

The Standard Star Army Armory contains most of the weapons for the crew and its power armors. The standard armory is inside a Zesuaium-armored, cooled, static-free vault that spans 2 decks. Personnel weapons are kept on the upper level; power armor weapons and ammunition are kept below. There is no nodal system available in the armory. The armory is a restricted area, and can only be accessed by those with permission from the ship's captain.
