

Ayenee Lisse's Cabin

Located on Deck 45 of the YSS Battle Of Ayenee Capital City, Cabin 4502 is built off the floorplan of the Standard Star Army Officers' Cabin. It was assigned to Ayenee Lisse, who proceeded to customize it for Alpha Team's Cabin Fever contest. While the design accepts little in the way of cultural inspiration, it is intended to represent Lisse's needs and desires as a Star Army Nekovalkyrja, Clerk, and Sprite.

History

In YE 45.1, the Cabin Fever contest was launched for members of Alpha Team, in order to encourage them to make their new assignments a new home. Taking advantage of the opportunity, Ayenee Lisse commissioned a personalized room design with more amenities, in addition to few personal touches.

Description

While Lisse's cabin does not deviate far from the layout of the Standard Star Army Officer's Cabin, it includes a few personal touches and amenities, primarily geared towards work, physical training, and optimized comfort.

Main Room

Of particular note, the double bed has been replaced by a single to make more room for a miniaturized armory between the bed and the storage locker. The armory is stocked with two Ta-W1-3a - Katanas, a standard issue Type 33 NSP, and a Type 28 Mass Production Pistol. From there, a dance pole is located in the middle of the open space in front of the bed, which Lisse uses for training and pleasure. The wall behind the bed has an oil painting gifted to Lisse by Fukada Masaru during her virtual tour of Fort Minori. The wall opposite from the bed displays the Star Army Flag. Otherwise, the main room is largely as stock, with the position of the work desk being unchanged from the standard cabin. However, there is a hot pink Star Army Sofa behind the desk, positioned close to the entrance. The flooring and bed comforters are also hot pink, rather than Star Army Crimson.

Lisse typically keeps a fragrance candle lit on the desk, which gives the room a pleasant vanilla and jasmine scent.

Bathroom

The bathroom is left as stock. However, the sink has been replaced by one more geared towards vanity, with cabinets underneath for various grooming tools, towels, perfumes, and other beauty products.
