

System R-2 Shinjiyuu

Located in the Nepleslian Colonial Expanse, the Shinjiyuu system was one of several systems the jiyuu fled to after the collapse of the UOC. The majority of colonists are Jiyuuians who named the planet after their lost capital.

Shinjiyuu is the home system for the Wardens that was formed from the Ex-Jiyuu peacekeepers in YE 40

More about the Planet

Shinjiyuu is a Nepleslian colony. The reality, however is a somewhat different. While loyal and grateful to the Imperium, there are voices within the community who feel that they should re-establish a government and nation based upon the principles of the UOC. Others argue that it would be more productive to create a political party with those ideals and become part of the Nepleslian political process as one of its parties like the Greens, Reds, Or yellows. The impact of a Nepleslia that supports the same philosophies as the former UOC, they argue, would be greater than the establishment of another single star system nation. For now, these are simply debates as the colony is funded partly by the Nepleslian government and the colonists have no immediate plans for independence.
