

Children's Day

Children's Day is a day for celebration in Yamatai of children, as the day suggests.

▢ More About Children's Day ▢

Children's Day¹⁾ lands on 2月 4日 every year²⁾ and is a day to honor children and respect them in the fullest. Their personalities and happiness are celebrated and ensured every day in Yamatai, but on this day they are given specific reverence. There are special noiseless fireworks that are used at night on Children's Day. The paper or fabric  carp are often raised on poles, strung up from buildings, or displayed in any form and gifts are often given. The day is overwhelmingly festive and fun for many!!³⁾

On this day Empress Himiko I will go out from dawn until dusk visiting children's hospitals and parks to meet with the children throughout Yamatai \(Planet\).

Traditions

This holiday is the day in which children are presented as the forefront of everyone's attention for the day. They are allowed to make plenty of their own decisions. On this day museums, zoos, animal parks, amusement parks, and other attractions are open to the public for children to be brought to and enjoyed by.

Gifts

On this day gifts such as custom tailored dolls are given to children across the entire Empire. A favorite toy is a rideable fish doll or a smaller one that dolls can ride. In orphan towns such as Tsubomi, the paper carp is handed out to children at school or orphanages as they often do not get proper dolls or gifts. The swimming carp represents ascending through the river of life.

Food

🍡 Mochi is given out to children free of charge by vendors to children! Usually they are filled with something savory or sweet, including 🍡 Red bean paste and 🍡 Matcha. There are assorted cooked 🍡 Fish within many of the handheld cakes such as 🍡 Dorayaki. They are also within 🍡 Taiyaki, which are carp-shaped and pancake-like and fillable with an assortment of foods or pastes.
