Headquarters

Ricco's Diner has a large HQ Campus in Funky City on Neplesia.

Facilities

There are literally tens of thousands of restaurants across Planet Neplesia and its colonies. There's debate if there are more Ricco's or gun stores in Funky City. Additionally, they have a number of logistics hubs, regional and district offices, and a massive HQ Campus that acts as HQ for Logistics, Colonial, and Special Ops Commands

Equipment

A Ricco's Diner employee at one of their many restaurant or food truck locations is issued:

- 2 knives (A kitchen knife and a combat knife)
- 2 sets of uniforms (the polo shirt is made of stab resistant fibers and includes extra stab padding around the chest and kidneys.
- 1 pair of steel toed non slip shoes
- 1 EM-W4 Stun Baton
- 1 plate carrier (stored at the employee's workstation)
- 1 ballistic helmet (stored at the employee's workstation)
- 1 EM-G4 Emrys Filter Mask (stored at the employee's workstation)

Structure

Structured like a paramilitary Each restaurant functions as its own platoon responsible for day to day operations. Four restaurants nearby are grouped into a company and are supported by a support center that handles administration, logistics, maintenance, intelligence, and IT for the area. The sheer number of Ricco's in an area allows for easy administration

The structure repeats itself up to regional and planetary commands, each with their headquarters and support elements. These are subordinate to a Central Command
